

History

German administration in Cameroon

The German administration in Cameroon lasted from 1884 to 1916. The head of the German administration was the Governor. The capital of German Cameroon was first in Douala, it was transferred to Buea in 1901 and to Yaounde in 1907.

The six German governors who did administration work in Cameroon can be seen in the video so pay attention to the explanation at the end you will bring out a mind map on the German governors in Cameroon.